And always, always with the butt stuff. He can't get through anything without trhowing out a reference to butts, genetalia, or what emerges from either.

Ability? No. Desire? Yes. As proven by the emails AD submitted to the court.

You are also a frequent utterer of threats. You have used "Die in a fire" as a sign off almost as often as you have bizarrely threatened someone and then said, "be well."

Your impotence is all that keeps you from being an extreme threat to everyone around you. Your malice is your most apparent trait.

Liar.

Bill Schmalfeldt is a fool and a loud-mouth with no self-control or sense of reality. I am appalled at his behavior.

You have been far more patient than you ought to be.

No one, but no one, can read that and not congratulate you on your fisting.

i love how it brings its faildox of you into play, just after declaring that it hates no one. Once again displaying the complete lack of self-awareness that makes watching it so fascinating.

BTW, a number of us have sat death beds, some of us more than once. You know what? Not once has it been appropriate to blog, podcast or tweet during that time, as the disgusting ghoul did. Shudder.

If that's love, spare me.

Possibly – but surely the dementia would lead him to subside into non-sequiturs worse than Pinky's? Instead of stupid lies?

I am fully at peace with the fact that you're going to die.
